TELEGRAPHIC. GREELRY RETIRES FROM THE TRIBUNE.

New York, May '4.—The 'Tribune' to-morrow publishes the following card: The 'Tribune' has ceased to be a party organ, but the unexpected nemination of its editor at Cincinnati, seems to involve it in a new embarrassment. All must be aware that the position of a journalist who is at the same time a candidate, is at best irk-some and difficult; that he is fettered in action and restrained in criticism by the knowledge that whatever he may say or do is closely scanned by thousands, eager to find in it what may be so interpreted as to annoy or perplex those who are sup-porting him as a candidate, and to whon his shackled condition will not permit him to be serviceable. The undersigned, therefore, withdraws absolutely from the conduct of the 'Tribune,' and henceforth, until further notice, exercises no control or supervision over its columns. (Signed.) May 15, 1872. HORACE GREELEY. The editorial management of the Tribune, of course falls on Whitelaw Reid, Esq.

New York, May 14.—Tennie C. Claffin, in this morning's 'Sun' applies for the coloneley of the Ninth regiment, protesting that it would be wrong to the memory of its dead leader to select as his successor any one lacking the magnetic influence he possessed over the soldiers. She pledges herself, if elected, to give such an impetus to recruiting that in thirty days it will be the foremost regiment in the state. She says she is a woman and so was Joan of Arc, and while she don't pretend to have military genius, it has alnected with the infantry service, in the rules of which she is well versed. New York, May 14.—The democratic members of the Connecticut legislature, in cancus, Monday evening, at New Haven, nominated O. G. Ferry for United States Senator. He is the present incumbent, and a supporter of Greeley for the presi-

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 14 .- Hon, Alfred Huger, a well-known citizen of this city, a conpicious Unionist in the days of nullification and rebellion, died yesterday, aged 84 years. He was postmaster of Charleston from the time of President Jackson till 1865.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., May 14 .- The Illinois State Medical Society convenes in this city on the 21st inst., for a three days' session. Arrangements have been completed for the entertainment of all delegates attending.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The Broad street office of Mesdames Woodhull & Claffin is closed, reports says by the sheriff.
